Dear Rotarians:

It is with great pleasure that I, President of the newly chartered Rotary Club of Beijing, write to inform you that I will soon send you an invitation to participate in the Rotary events that will be organized on the occasion of Rotary International President Carl-Wilhelm Stenhammar's visit to China from 20 to 23 May of this year. We welcome your participation at these events.

You will soon receive an invitation which will include details of all the events as well as other useful information, including possibilities for hotel reservations and sight-seeing tours. This advance notice also includes the program prepared by the newly chartered Rotary Club of Shanghai to allow you to save these dates on your calendar and begin to plan your travel to China.

The program outline looks as follows.

Friday 19 May

Beijing: Sightseeing and golf activities.

Saturday 20 May.

If you have any questions before you receive the detailed invitation, please feel free to contact Li Xiaohui, Rotary Club of Beijing Office Manager, lxh@rotaryclub-beijing.org.

If you have any questions regarding the Shanghai Club's program, please contact President Lee Wah Hin at drwhlee@gmail.com.

These events in May will be a festive occasion to celebrate the visit of RIP Stenhammar and the charter presentation to the two clubs. We are all looking forward to seeing you and your spouses in China.

Yours in Rotary

Carl-Ludwig Dörwald
President, Rotary Club of Beijing, China
